

An Angel on Earth.

Once upon a time at a place known as the Land of the Eternal Sunshine, there was an angel, who was lots more beautiful, lots stronger and lots more intelligent than all of her brothers and sisters. When she grow up and saw, how on planet Earth, these stupid animals called humans, in their unteachable arrogance, were destroying their surroundings and killing and torturing other animals, just for greediness or their own perverse pleasure, she was revolted. But, she was to respectful of all living beings to judge, condemn or despise the humans and she had pity on all those, who suffered from hunger, pain or the malignity of other men and women. At her 18th birthday, the pretty angel descended to the world of mankind, hoping to bring some warmness and light into the cold darkness of their existence. If one day you have the chance and the privilege to meet her, your life will be transformed forever. She will show you that the souvenir of herself and your faculty to dream of her and anything you like to dream of, can give you hope, strength and courage every day. You will be able to defy any problem you might have and to find back your soulfulness and happiness, if you're hopeless or sad. The only thing you have to do, is to never forget her and to believe in the power and magic of the beautiful angel, who has made the choice to live among us on Earth.
